Brexit lawsuit compromised by Jeremy Wright, the Attorney General

Dear All,

I received today notification from the SFO Ref 9559 that it will not be pursuing allegations of corruption. I believe the SFO was informed by the HMRC that Deutsche Bank has probably laundered money to Russia via Over-The-Counter bullion sold at its German branches. Deutsche Bank was also accused by me of gold price manipulation and I have been fighting a lawsuit against it in the Birmingham Commercial Court from January 2015. Lately they have been fined by both BaFin and the FCA of money laundering, as I had alleged over a year ago, and DB settled in New York for silver and gold price manipulation for $38 million.

I believe the Attorney General, Jeremy Wright MP, has undermined the SFO investigation – he was personally sent a copy of the evidence sent to the SFO and the FCA, of a paper trail that would have established Deutsche Bank had faked its gold manipulation audit – the audit alleged by by Reuters on 19 June 2014. He did absolutely nothing to follow that paper trail. As a head of the SFO, he would have the influence to compromise its investigations too. Why is the SFO not concerned that the audit is fake when Deutsche Bank are settling the allegations of manipulation? There is no honest answer. There can be no honest answer.

Why is the New Yorker alleging $10 billion of money laundering between Russia and London by Deutsche Bank, and yet there are no arrests for fraud or tax evasion? HMRC and the SFO are clearly not doing their jobs and the prosecution is halted at the highest level. HMRC's prosecution would be led by the Attorney General.

Also as Attorney General from 2014 onwards Mr Wright would be responsible in part for handling a Civil Restraining Order against me issued by HSBC to stop me suing Deutsche Bank for gold price manipulation. HSBC have been incriminated by Deutsche Bank's precious metal rigging settlement as a co-conspirator. So we can figure that the executives of HSBC lobbied the Attorney General's office to throw the lawsuit. The date on the CRO pre-dates the date at which my lawsuit was filed – we can figure that HSBC planned to have the allegations against Deutsche Bank dismissed even before Deutsche Bank had submitted a defence.

The executives of HSBC conspired to pervert the course of justice and Jeremy Wright MP would be the natural target for bribery. His failure to force HMRC or the SFO to prosecute confirms the obvious.

The result of political interference with a civil lawsuit has been to corrupt the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the office of the Lord Chief Justice, who is in contempt of the Data Protection Act for failing to admit that no transcript of hearing existed when Lord Ian Burnett found against my appeal which alleged twenty points of misconduct against Judge Simon Brown QC.

Paul Kernaghan of JACO refuses to 'believe' that Deutsche Bank could launder money, even as they are fined by two independent authorities and the New Yorker exposes that offices were set up specifically to profit from sanction violations.

Now this same Attorney General, who was there to argue in favour of Brexit, 'opposes' one Gina Miller, whose principal business is in a partnership with Deutsche Bank, and the more senior judge, is the Lord Chief Justice, who helped the same bank avoid scrutiny for money laundering and market manipulation. All three sides – the judge, the defendant and the claimant are involved with Deutsche Bank, the insolvent fraudsters who misappropriated Greek bailout money so that they could finance their precious metal price rigging frauds.

Should we, the general public, assume that the trial was rigged to find against an early Brexit? Will the politicians who say 'Brexit means Brexit' go on to say 'Brexit means Brexit means nothing – our hands are tied, how could we foresee we were breaking the law.'

I would ask that the Justice Committee call the Attorney General as a witness and ask him what he has done to test the allegations made against Deutsche Bank, that it faked its audit. I attach a number of letters to his office in which the case against Deutsche Bank was made. These concerns were also raised with Elizabeth Truss, the Lord Chancellor, who appears to have done nothing either.

Kind regards
Mark Anthony Taylor
