Dears Mrs Thomas,

Appended on the second page is a document I believe you sent on the 18 July 2016. You should double check this to ensure there is no misrepresentation of the letter.

According to the first sentence in that document 'a Circuit Judge' made a comment. It is not clear who that judge was; whether it was Judge McKenna, Judge Haddon-Cave or Judge Simon Brown, or another. According to the second paragraph the Circuit Judge directed the application to Judge McKenna together with the appropriate form and fee.

I would like to know who that judge was. 'A Circuit Judge' does not seem accidental anonymity to me.

The email was directed to Judge Simon Brown and it was not so much an application but a demand. Judge McKenna, if he were to handle the application would need the transcript of the hearing, which is expensive to commission. I would also have to ask Judge Simon Brown for the transcript, or one of his peers, when I have submitted appeal documents against him which allege some 20 points of misconduct. I currently have little faith that the transcript would emerge. I do not at this time have the money to commission the transcript nor do I have the money to pay the court fee, and the restraining order against me prevents me from receiving fee remission.

Simon Brown sat as Judge in the hearing. He would know what happened in that court, and a transcript would only serve as a reminder. It costs him nothing to Google Deutsche Bank's settlement in New York and understand the game is up. It costs him nothing to Google the FCA's finding against DB for money laundering, confirming another major claim I made in the hearing that he was so quick to dismiss.

I would ask that you take the demand to Simon Brown direct, and any Circuit Judge who orders otherwise should have the integrity to give their name to the order – and they can explain why a judge who has allowed DB to get away with money laundering to terrorists, and who ordains that cross-examination of applicants to an oral hearing is vexatious still sits on the bench.

It was Judge McKenna who handled the October 2015 hearing application in which I showed that UBS had misled the court. He made no attempt to force UBS to disclose its confession that it made to the Department of Justice – so I do not think he is a credible judge in these matters.

Regards
Mark Anthony Taylor

Dear Sir

Re: Case Number: B40BM021 Mark Anthony Taylor v Anshu Jain (Ceo Of Deutsche Bank)

Your email dated 11 July 2016 was referred to a Circuit Judge who has made the following comments:

MR TAYLOR'S LETTER IS NOT AN APPLICATION. IF HE MAKES AN AN APPLICATION, ON THE PROPER FORMS AND WITH THE APPROPRIATE FEE, IT SHOULD BE REFERRED TO HIS HONOUR JUDGE MCKENNA TO CONSIDER PERMISSION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CIVIL RESTRAINT ORDER.

The Court awaits your further instructions, if any.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Sue Thomas
