Brief Details of Claim

I, Mark Anthony Taylor, the plaintiff, sue the defendants, for the illegal and unjust cartel fraud of market manipulation, in violation of national and international competition laws, the effect on me was to devalue my bullion sales and this caused me financial loss, poverty, stress and suffering.

Correspondence between Deutsche Bank and myself demonstrates that Deutsche Bank and its executives conspired to fake their internal gold manipulation audit which followed BaFin's probe into its gold trading activities, and so directly confirms BaFin's suspicions that Deutsche Bank manipulated the price of precious metals, thus creating liabilities against precious metals I sold into the market. The FCA findings into Forex manipulation, as well as that of other regulators, demonstrates associated cartel activity from the other defendants and thus their inclusion in the litigation.

Value

40kg of silver bullion and 40.150 kg of platinum bullion, valued at £1000,000 on 28 Nov 2014, for purpose of computation of court fees. Repayment is demanded in bullion.
