

The circled regions indicates when significant margin requirement hikes were made on the Comex. According to the Comex the hikes were to increase stability. What we see is a vertical collapse. How is this meant to have stabilized the market?

FIGURE 1

