Dear Mr Taylor

Thank you for your correspondence received by the Office of the Lord Chief Justice on 16 February 2016.

The content of your letter concerning Birmingham High Court and the JCIO has been noted. Unfortunately, the Lord Chief Justice cannot intervene in or comment upon individual cases except those that come before him through the process of the courts.

If you wish to pursue this matter further you may like to consider seeking further legal advice to establish a way forward. Alternatively, if you have concerns regarding the JCIO then you must direct those concerns to the Judicial Appointments and Conduct Ombudsman, at

JACO
9th floor
The Tower
102 Petty France
London SW1H 9AJ

I am afraid neither this office nor the Lord Chief Justice is in a position to offer such advice.

I am sorry I cannot be of more help.

Yours sincerely,

Pamela Gillies

Executive Assistant to the Lord Chief Justice
